Why you should use Title XV
WHP is a basic medical coverage program and when other programs exist that are more comprehensive in coverage those programs must be used. Title XV offers the services listed below.

Program Description
The Title XV "Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program" (BCCCP) is sponsored by the federal government and provides FREE screening services to women 40-64.

Covered Services
Title XV offers the following screenings for FREE:

- Clinical Breast Exam
- Pap test
- Pelvic Exam
- Screening Mammogram
- Diagnostic Mammogram
- And most follow up services, if you qualify

You should not get a bill for this service.

Eligibility
Female WHP enrollees between the ages of 40-64 are eligible and MUST use this program for their annual breast and cervical exams.

Enrollment Information
In order to receive your annual breast and cervical cancer screening you MUST do the following:

- Begin your care at an authorized Title XV site

-AND-

- Mention Title XV when you make your appointment.

Important: If your primary provider is not an authorized site, DO NOT get breast or cervical cancer screening services from your primary provider. You must choose a Title XV site within your health system.

How to use Title XV

1. Make an appointment at one of the authorized sites listed below.
2. Mention the Title XV (15) program when you schedule your appointment.
3. Ask the Title XV site to send the record of your visit to your primary provider if necessary.
