SECTION 1
SWEEPSTAKES SHOWMANSHIP
Friday, 7:00 P.M. in Show Pavilion
Superintendent –Channon Mason
Do not pre-enter this class. Awards to be presented to the Champion and Reserve Champion Winners.

RULES FOR SWEEPSTAKES SHOWMANSHIP CLASS:

1. The senior division showmanship winner in the beef, dairy, sheep, swine, horse, rabbit, poultry, dog, llama and goat areas will participate in the Sweepstakes Showmanship Contest. Once an individual wins sweepstakes showmanship, they cannot participate in sweepstakes again.
2. If the first place show person chooses not to compete in Sweepstakes, they must notify the superintendent for that species by the time listed in that specie section of the youth show book. The second place senior will then be asked.
3. Participants must be attired in proper clothing for the division they are representing.
4. Participants will not be scored in their own specie.
5. The swine department is responsible for providing pens.
6. Participants are encouraged to contact the specie superintendent or exhibitors who show the various species for suggestions on how to show each animal. Participants can also obtain showmanship information from the Extension Office.
7. Contestants will be asked to report early to the competition to complete a brief written quiz about the species they will be showing. Scores of the quizzes will be used only to break a tie.
8. The contestant accumulating the most points will be declared the winner.
9. The winner and runner-up will be announced publicly, participants may view complete placing list if desired.
10. The sweepstakes showmanship superintendent will secure out of county judges. In county judges will only be used in emergency situations.
