Comm. Kern seconded by Comm. Montague presented the following resolution to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners 6/17/98 Regarding information gathering and community building strategies related to the proposed County-wide millage initiative to expand and renovate the jail, build a new detention center, and build a new day treatment center. Given the it is good public policy for the elected representative bodies to inform and involve their constituencies: And given that the millage initiative to renovate and expand the County Jail, and also build a new detention center and day treatment center is more likely to pass if all interested parties and stakeholders are working together to make it a reality; And given the concerns have been raised by individuals, groups, and organizations who have historically been allies in the pursuit of good services for children and youth, and their input and support of this millage proposal would be enormously helpful: Therefore, be it resolved that person representing all stakeholders, namely consumers of the juvenile justice systems, the Juvenile Court Citizens' Advisory Council, affected law enforcement personnel, the advocacy community, staff from both the Juvenile Court and Detention Center, staff from the offices of the Public Defender and the Prosecutor, the education community, and others be invited to work with the identified consultants and County Administration to develop a plan that addresses the building design, financial and human resources requirements, and issues created by separating the juvenile judicial (including casework services) and detention functions. And be it further resolved that the Commission commits to enhance the operating budgets of the affected County departments and entities to adequately address the costs that result from this plan. An be it further resolved that this plan be reported to Board of Commissioners prior to the millage request being submitted to the voters. Comm. Bergman seconded by Comm. Craiger moved to table. Motion to table carried on voice vote.
