Report of the Chair of the Board of Commissioners (continued)

Chair Shaw said that Comm. DeLong is out of town and couldn't be here this evening, but he asked that if Board Members wanted to take their flags home, they could do so, but those who don't, he would like to have them to place on the graves of veterans.

Chair Shaw thanked everyone for the opportunity to serve as Chair and reported that she is proud of the following

- We have maintained, with Bob Guenzel's leadership, a strong fiscal position in spite of what's going on in the rest of the country.
- All the Police Services contracts have been negotiated for implementation by the beginning of this coming year.
- Because of September 11, we learned that we had a few things to learn about a systematic approach to emergencies, and were able to put those in place.
- Joe Yekulis was the first person from this County elected to the position of President of Michigan Association of Counties (MAC).
- We seem to be moving ahead on the Shelter.
- We have continued to support Human Services and especially the Children's Well Being dollars.

- We are far ahead of a lot of other communities, both in having a bioterrorism task force going since spring of 2000, and we are leaders in e-government.
- We passed a Living Wage Ordinance.
- We have strengthened the relationship with the University of Michigan for the WCHO.
- We established the Economic Development Corporation.

Report from the County Administrator

Mr. Guenzel thanked everyone for the year. He said we got a tremendous amount done and the budget is a tremendous commitment to Washtenaw County and the citizens of Washtenaw County.

Mr. Guenzel said the 2002 Work Plan for the Internal Audit Function is included in the agenda and that Pete Collinson is here to answer any questions.

Liaison Reports

Comm. Irwin reported that there has been a lot of work going on at SEMCOG in terms of trying to create a regional rapid transit system. He said he was going to Lansing tomorrow to testify on behalf of the County.

Comm. Yekulis reported that in the packet for next meeting of the MAC Directors, there are a number of resolutions that have been passed by counties all over the state supporting Washtenaw County and our amicus brief vs. Pittsfield Township on the issue of siting county facilities. He said other initiatives he has put forth for the Association in the next year are moving ahead.

Comm. Kestenbaum reported that there has been another wave of computer viruses that have been going around. He said University of Michigan was very badly affected yesterday, but he understands that the new firewall that was constructed in the wave of the last outbreak worked and the County was not affected. He congratulated Ed Luchi and his department for their success.

Items for Current/Future Discussion

Comm. Montague said she is very proud of her Roberto Clemente students.

Comm. Solowczuk said thank you to Bob Guenzel and his staff and to the heads of departments for helping us through this year and for all the hard work they've done. He said they have made his year a whole lot easier.

Comm. Craiger said he has enjoyed this year. He said Commissioners have worked well together.
