

Satisfaction with Service Provided

This data will be obtained through consumer satisfaction surveys designed and distributed by the hospital, and reported annually. Providers must report on the number of surveys distributed, number of surveys collected, and percentage of consumers reporting overall satisfaction with services.

Each provider must also discuss how data indicating dissatisfaction has been addressed.