Ypsilanti City-Wide Open House showcases area to realtors, prospective buyers

The City of Ypsilanti's City-Wide Open House is once again bringing realtors, prospective home buyers, city officials, and other local representatives together to explore everything the area has to offer from noon – 4 p.m. Saturday, October 15.

Organizers of the City-Wide Open House, now in its third year, are hoping to draw more than 200 visitors into the city with approximately 25 listings on the tour. Visitors can meet with representatives from the city of Ypsilanti, as well as meet with local school, police, and fire officials.

Finally, area business including Sidetrack Bar & Grill, Bomber Restaurant, and Tower Inn will offer special discounts with a business discount card distributed at registration.

P.J. Moffett, an area realtor with Real Estate One, said October 15 is the perfect opportunity to get a taste of what the Ypsilanti community has to offer.

“The goal of the event is to showcase the City of Ypsilanti to anyone who is exploring the option of buying a home in the area,” Moffett said.

Following is what participants can expect:

- Open house event is noon - 4 p.m., with registration at Campbell Title Co. in the Key Bank Building (corner of Michigan Ave. and Hamilton in downtown Ypsilanti)
- Participants will receive a map identifying the featured open houses and receive an Open House Eagle business discount card
- Brief tours of the city are 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. starting at Campbell Title Co.
- Mortgage representatives on-hand to work with you and answer questions.
- Maps of participating properties will be available to download by October 13 at OpenHouse.Ypsi.com
- Full details can be found at: OpenHouse.Ypsi.com

All events are free and made possible through the generous donations of: Ann Arbor Area Board of Realtors, Eastern Michigan University, TCF Bank, KeyBank, Standard Printing, PNC Bank, Campbell Title Co., HDL, Parish House Inn, and the Ypsilanti Area Convention and Visitors Bureau.
