

So you think you're a baller?
Got handles or maybe a nice jumper? Think you've got what it takes to be named the "Best in the West"?

Ballin' in the Willow (BITW) is a free, eight week, 3 on 3 basketball tournament that was created for the young people of the West Willow community. Every summer West Willow Park is the battleground as we search for "The Best In The West".

BITW was designed so that the individual, the team, the one time participant, or the full eight week participant could take part and still benefit equally. All you need to do is show up on Tuesday with a team of three and play until you lose twice. Each week is a tournament by itself, but in order to be the "Best In The West" you have got to be willing to compete throughout the entire summer.
