

Money Smart Week—April 20-26

Washtenaw County Money Smart Week Events

Money Smart Workshop Saturday, April 19, 2008

UAW Local 849 Hall, 454 Chidester, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Do you need to improve your budgeting skills? Need help getting out of debt? Getting behind with your mortgage? Catherine McClary, Washtenaw County Treasurer, is partnering with the University of Michigan Credit Union and Washtenaw County Extension for this event. This free seminar will offer valuable insight into credit scores, credit reporting and credit repair, home budgeting and tax and mortgage foreclosure prevention. A free breakfast is included starting at 8:00 am. The seminar will run until 12:30 pm. To register contact Terry Jones at MSU Extension at 734-222-3943 or jonest@ewashtenaw.org. Space is limited so call today!

Money Smart Employee Brown Bag Lunches

Tuesday, April 22, 2008

Washtenaw County, 200 N Main Street, Ann Arbor
Lower Level Conference Room

Wednesday, April 23, 2008

Washtenaw County, 555 Towner, Ypsilanti
Conference Room 107

Catherine McClary and Washtenaw County Professional Development will host two brown bag lunches to discuss the importance of financial literacy and what we as a community can do to promote skills for thrifty living. Washtenaw County Employees and the public are invited to attend. Both sessions will be from noon to 1:00 pm. Bring your lunch, drinks and desserts will be provided. Please contact Professional Development to register, 734-222-6565 or wicks1@ewashtenaw.org.